

The family Elizabeth Dewey, wife of Joseph Gale

David Warn

July 16, 2022

Elizabeth Dewey

Betty Dewey was my great-great-great grandmother. She was born at Fisherton Delamere on 21 December 1802¹ and baptised there on 26 December 1802.

Elizabeth (Betty) was the youngest daughter of David and Betty Dewey (née Ranger). She married Joseph Gale, a carter, from Chitterne All Saints, at Fisherton Delamere on 6 May 1822. Joseph was baptised at Chitterne on 31 August 1800. The witnesses were John Gale² and William Mould.

The couple had at least nine children including William Gale, the father of William Henry Gale.

Elizabeth Gale, wife of Joseph Gale, farm carter died at Fisherton Delamere on 9 January 1863³, aged 61. The cause of death was ulceration of the stomach. Ann Lawrence⁴ was present at the death.

Elizabeth Gale was buried at Fisherton Delamere on 12 January 1863, aged 61.

¹Register gives age at baptism as 5 days.

²Probably Joseph's half brother

³DR: Elizabeth Gale, M1863, Wilton, 5a 165

⁴Elizabeth's granddaughter.

The descendants of David Dewey

David Dewey was the father of Betty Dewey. He was born at Codford, Wiltshire in 1773.

He was baptised on 17 September 1773 at Codford St. Mary, Wilts. He was the son of George Dewey and his wife Elizabeth Cockerel.

David married Elizabeth (Betty) Ranger of Fisherton Delamere, at Fisherton Delamere on 16 February 1795⁵.

He was probably the third son of George and Elizabeth Dewey. His wife Betty Ranger⁶ was almost nine years his senior. Betty was the mother of an illegitimate son, Job, baptised at Fisherton Delamere on 30 January 1791. The IGI suggests that Job was David Dewey's son, but there is no evidence to confirm this. A second illegitimate son, John Ranger Dewey is also ascribed to the couple. However, there is no evidence to suggest that he existed. The couple lived in Bapton, a small village adjacent to Fisherton. David seems to have found himself in trouble with the law on a number of occasions⁷ and was the subject of an assault charge at the time of his death in 1814.

He was killed, 'run over by a wagon', aged about 41, in early November 1814.

David Dewey was buried at Codford St. Mary on 8 November 1814.

His wife, Elizabeth, remained in Bapton until her death.

In the 1841 Census, Elizabeth Dewey (78,-) was living in Bapton with the family of her daughter Sarah. Her son, Job Ranger and daughter Betty Gale were living nearby.

Elizabeth Dewey, widow of David Dewey, labourer, deceased, died of an inflammation of the eye on 13 March 1847, aged 80⁸. The death was registered by her daughter Elizabeth Gale, present at the death.

⁵Witnesses: John Morgan, George Badder

⁶(BAP) 24 December 1764, Fisherton Delamere (FDPR)

⁷David Dewey and his son George Dewy [sic] were found not guilty at Salisbury Sessions on 11 April 1811 with having feloniously stolen a bushel of corn, the property of John Davis of Fisherton Delamere, David Dewy [sic] with aiding and abetting George Dewy and James Cannings with receiving the same, knowing it to have been stolen.

⁸She was closer to 82.

David and Elizabeth had issue:

1. George

George Dewey was born at Fisherton in 1795.

He was baptised on 24 May 1795 at Fisherton Delamere, Wilts. He was an agricultural labourer. In his youth, he was involved in petty crime.

After his father's death, he married Mary Spary (~1785-1822) (otp) at Codford St. Mary, Wilts. on 16 July 1815⁹.

They had issue:

(a) David

David Dewey was baptised at Codford St. Mary on 21 September 1817.

He was buried there four months later on 6 January 1818.

(b) David

David Dewey was baptised at Codford St. Mary on 8 May 1819.

He was buried there aged 1 year and 4 months on 28 August 1820.

For both baptisms, George was recorded as a labourer.

Mary Dewey died in 1822 and was buried at Codford St. Mary on 21 March 1822, aged 37¹⁰.

George Dewey, a widower, married secondly Sarah Ann Davis of Wylve (~1798-1870) at Stockton just nine months later on 31 December 1822.

They had issue:

(a) Elizabeth Ann

Elizabeth Dewey was born at Codford in 1823.

She was baptised at Codford St. Mary on 30 November 1823.

She was with her mother in 1841.

Elizabeth Ann Dewey, minor, spinster, daughter of George Dewey, labourer, married William Woods (~1819-fl. 1871) of Codford St. Mary, son of Thomas Woods, at Codford St. Mary on 26 June 1842¹¹. The witnesses were John Woods and Louisa Sturges.

They had issue including:

i. Alfred William

Alfred Woods was born at Codford St. Mary on 29 October¹² 1842¹³.

He was baptised at Codford St Mary on 11 December 1842.

He was with his parents in 1851 and 1861.

Alfred married Eliza Pepler in 1868¹⁴ and had issue:

A. Louisa Kate

Louisa Woods was born at Trowbridge on 24 September¹⁵ 1868¹⁶.

She was baptised at Sutton Veny on 9 June 1878.

In 1881, Louisa Woods (12, nursemaid, Trowbridge) was recorded with her aunt Sarah Willis in Trowbridge.

She was probably the mother of:

(1) Frances Kate

⁹Witnesses: Sarah Dewe (sic), Harriet Spary

In 1901, Frances Woods (16, general servant domestic, Warminster) was recorded at Leicester House, Southcote Road, Bournemouth. Her sister¹⁸ Mary was working nearby.

Louisa married William Lord Church around 1889¹⁹.

They had issue:

(1) William Adolphus Charles

William Church was born at Trowbridge on 15 December²⁰ 1890²¹.

William died in 1969, aged 78.

(2) Florence Mary

Florence Church was born in Hendon in 1893²².

She probably died in 1895²³, aged 2.

(3) Charles Alfred

Charles Church was born in Paddington in 1895²⁴.

He was baptised at St Mary, Paddington on 21 March 1895.

He died young²⁵. He died at Harrow Road Workhouse on 17 October 1895.

Their first child, William Adolphus Charles Church was born in Trowbridge in 1890, shortly before the couple moved to Cambridge.

In 1891, William Church (24, working jeweller and clock maker, Kilburn) and Louisa (22, Trowbridge) were living at 53 Park Street, Cambridge with their son Adolphus (3 months, Trowbridge).

In 1901, William Church (34, working jeweller, Kilburn) and Louisa (31, charwoman, Trowbridge) were living at 60 Amberley Road, Paddington with their son William (10, Trowbridge).

took off from Nazi occupied northern France. As the city sirens wailed, few citizens took cover, even when the first pathfinder flares fell, the people of Bath still believed the attack was destined for nearby Bristol. During the previous four months Bristol had been hit almost every night, so the people of Bath did not expect the bombs to fall on them. The first raid struck just before 11 pm on the Saturday night and lasted until 1 am. The German aircraft then returned to France, refueled, rearmed and returned at 4.35 am. Bath was still on fire from the first raid, making it easier for the German bombers to pick out their targets. The third raid, which only lasted two hours but caused extensive damage, commenced in the early hours of Monday morning. The bombers flew low to drop their high explosives and incendiaries and then returned to rake the streets with machine-gun fire.

Mary perhaps married thirdly James Naish in 1878⁴²⁰.

In 1881, James Nash (44, AgLab, Fisherton) and Mary J. (50, Codford) were living in Mells, Somerset with James's son, Joseph (13, AgLab, Fisherton).

Mary Jane Nash, wife of James Nash, a labourer of Mells, Somerset, died from fibroid tumour of uterus, peritonitio-collapse at the Royal United Hospital, Bath on 7 January 1884⁴²¹, aged 50. Mary Jane Nash of Mells Down was buried at Mells on 10 January 1884.

James probably married Sarah Edwards in 1885⁴²².

(c) Maria

Maria Dewey was born at Codford in 1832.

She was baptised at Codford St. Mary on 8 December 1832.

She was recorded with her mother in Codford in 1841.

Maria Dewey, daughter of George Dewey, labourer, died from typhus fever at Codford St Mary on 27 March 1844⁴²³, aged 12. Elizabeth Dewey of Codford St Mary registered the death.

She was buried at Codford St. Mary on 30 March 1844.

⁴²⁴Job was presumably named after his (half-) uncle, Job Ranger.

He baptised at Codford St. Mary on 15 May 1836.

He was with with his mother in Codford St Mary in 1841.

In 1851, he was with his parents in Codford.

Job was convicted of stealing rope on 5 March 1857, fined £1, and sentenced to one month's hard labour. At the time he was living in Sherrington.

According to Jim Dewey's research Job became a stone mason and moved south to Portsmouth where he married Emily Frampton on 23 April⁴²⁵ 1860⁴²⁶. He was a bachelor, aged 24, living in Prince George Street, Portsea.

I have not found him in the 1861 census. Sometime before 1871, Job and Emily moved north to Staffordshire. In 1871, Job Dewey (35, horse keeper, Codford St Mary) and Emily (35, Salisbury) were living in Downfield Lane, Norton, Staffordshire with William Frampton⁴²⁷ (20, engine tender at coal works, Salisbury) and his wife Sarah (18, Trenton).

Emily Dewey died in 1876⁴²⁸, aged 41.

After Emily died, Job married Charlotte Kirkham.

Job Dewey, 39, widower, collier of Downfield Side, son of George Dewey, waggoner, married Charlotte Kirkham, 23, spinster, of Clerk's Hole, daughter of John Kirkham, collier at Norton in the Moors, Staffs. on 23 October 1876⁴²⁹. John and Ann Kirkhan witnessed the marriage.

Job and Charlotte had issue:

i. George

George Dewey was born in Norton in the Moors on 22 July⁴³⁰ 1877⁴³¹.

He died there, aged 1, on 26 March⁴³² 1879⁴³³.

Charlotte Dewey died aged 24, on 22 October⁴³⁴ 1877⁴³⁵ shortly after giving birth.

Job married thirdly to Ann Mountford in 1878⁴³⁶.

Job Dewey, 43, widower, collier, of Clerk's Hole, son of George Dewey, farm labourer married Ann Mountford, 52, widow, of Milton, daughter of George Lockett, farmer at Norton in the Moors on 5 October 1878.

From the Staffordshire Sentinel, Thursday 5 February 1880: MAINTENANCE CASE: Job Dewey, ostler, Norton-in-the-Moors, was summoned for allowing his wife to become chargeable to Leek Union, and to show cause why he should not contribute to her maintenance. Mr. Tennant appeared for the Guardians, and Mr. T. Cooper for the defendant. Mr C. R. Hyde, the relieving officer, said Mrs. Dewey became chargeable to the union on 19 January. Mrs. Dewey said she was married on the 5th of October 1878, and her husband deserted her a few days' afterwards, her husband going to live with another woman. She was not able to maintain herself. Mr. Cooper raised the point that the magistrates could not make a prospective order, the woman not being chargeable at the present time. He contended that she was not a person requiring relief, and further that Mrs. Dewey had been guilty of adultery with a man named Barber. Other witnesses were called, who deposed to seeing Barber and Mrs. Dewey together on several occasions. The Magistrates made an order of 2s and the costs.

By 1881, Job Dewey (47, hostler [coal miner], London [sic]) was lodging in the household of Sarah Mellor (57, widow, housekeeper, Milton) in Milton, Norton in the Moors. Also present was Sarah's daughter Hannah Newbrooks⁴³⁷ (25, Milton) with whom Job had at least two children in the 1880s. Hannah's children Joseph W. Newbrooks (6, Milton), Sarah E. Newbrooks (2, Milton), Mary E. Newbrooks (2 months, Milton). The last two may have been children of Job Dewey.

Linda Shinkman was born in 1949⁷⁰⁶.

Ronald Edward Shinkman of 54 Victoria Road, Warminster died on 10 May 1974⁷⁰⁷, aged 67.

Gwendoline died on 27 June⁷⁰⁸ 1996⁷⁰⁹, aged 82.

Rhoda Kate Dewey of 6 Jubilee Terrace, Warminster, wife of Charles Dewey, died on 15 March 1920⁷¹⁰, aged 36. Administration was granted to Charles Dewey, upholsterer.

Charles Dewey died in 1965⁷¹¹, aged 82.

In 1861, Cornelius Dewey (22, shoemaker, Codford) and Mary (21, Crockerton) were living 10 High Road, Codford St. Mary.

In 1871, Cornelius Dewey (30, cordwainer) and Mary (30) were still living in Codford St. Mary with their children, Thomas G. (9, scholar, Codford), Frank (6, scholar), Ellen (3, scholar) and Richard (4? months).

In 1881, Cornelius Dewey (40, bootmaker, Warminster) and Mary (39, Warminster) were living at 32 Vicarage Street, Warminster with their children, Frank (17, butcher), Ellen (15, silk factory hand), Richard (10, scholar), George (6, scholar), and Leah (1).

In 1891, Cornelius Dewey (50, shoemaker, Codford) and Mary (49, Crockerton) were living at 39 Vicarage Street, Warminster with their children, Frank (27, groom, Codford), Richard (20, rural postman, Codford), Georgy (16, groom, Warminster), Leah (12, scholar, Warminster), Charles (9, Warminster) and Nellie (5, London), who was probably actually their granddaughter Ellen Kate Dewey⁷¹².

In 1901, Cornelius Dewey (63, shoemaker) and Mary (62, laundress) were living at 83 Pound Street, Warminster with their children, Leah (21, laundress) and Charlie (19, furniture shop assistant).

In 1911, Mary Dewey (71, widow, laundress, Crockerton) (10 children, 8 still living) was living alone in 3 rooms at 83 Pound Street, Warminster.

Mary Dewey probably died in 1918⁷¹⁵, aged 78.

In the 1841 Census, George (45, AgLab) was living in Codford St. Mary. Curiously, he was not with his wife and children, but with the family of John Sparey (30, AgLab). This John was probably a relation of George's first wife and, though remote, the possibility exists that he was his (illegitimate) son. George's wife Sarah Dewey (40) was three doors away. With her were their children Elizabeth Ann (18), Mary Jane (10), Maria (8), Job (5) and Cornelius (2).

In 1851, George (54, carter, Bapton) was in Codford St. Mary living close to his cousin Daniel Dewey. With him were his wife Sarah (52,-,Wylve) and children Jo(a)b (14, AgLab, Codford St. Mary) and Cornelius (12, AgLab, Codford St. Mary).

In 1861, George Dewey (65, labourer, Bapton) and Sarah (63, Wylve) were living alone at 15 High Road, Codford St. Mary. Their son Cornelius was living at 10 High Road.

Sarah Dewey died in 1870⁷¹⁶, aged 73.

Sarah Dewey was buried at Codford St. Mary on 3 April 1870, aged 73.

In 1871, George (74, widower (pauper), Bapton) was living at the 49th house in Codford St. Mary, next door to his son, Cornelius and three doors away from his nephew, William Gale.

George Dewey, labourer, died from decay of nature at Union House, Warminster on 29 November 1872⁷¹⁷, aged about 77.

George Dewey of Warminster Union was buried at Codford St Mary on 4 December 1872, aged 75.

2. Sarah

Sarah Dewey was probably born at Bapton in 1798.

She was baptised at Fisherton Delamere on 25 March 1798.

In 1815, she was a witness to her brother George's marriage.

She was the mother of:

(a) Emma

⁷¹⁶DR: Sarah Dewey, J1870, Warminster, 5a 115 (73)

Emma⁷¹⁸ Dewey⁷¹⁹ was born at Fisherton Delamere, Wiltshire in 1826, perhaps on 28 April⁷²⁰.

Emma Dewey, daughter of Sarah, was baptised at Fisherton Delamere on 4 June 1826.

In 1841, Emma Dewey (15) was living with her grandmother, Elizabeth Dewey, in Fisherton.

In 1851, Emma Dewey (23, house servant, Bampton⁷²¹, Wilts.) was working for a Captain John Ayles, RM, in Brockhurst, Alverstoke, Hants.

⁷¹⁸Emma can probably be identified as the supposed daughter of John Ranger Dewey who emigrated to Utah in the 1850s and married the Mormon Isaac Aldred (see IGI compiled genealogy). It is likely that John Ranger Dewey was invented by Emma or later genealogists to cover up her illegitimacy. Certainly, there is no evidence to suggest that John Ranger Dewey existed.

⁷¹⁹Taken from a post of billiongraves.com (nathantots): When Emma was just a young girl, she heard the gospel from a missionary by the name of Isaac Allred. She was converted to the truth of his words and braved condemnation and ridicule of family and friends to join the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. She was baptized 6 July 1852. Her mother and stepfather disowned her so she packed her few belongings in a trunk and left England, never to see her family again. She worked her way to America, land of Zion in 1852. On opening her trunk after her arrival, she found that someone had poured ink all over the few clothes and belongings she had brought with her. It was three years later when she left Mormon Grove, Kansas, 1 July 1855, with the Richard Ballantine Company to walk all the way to Utah. Somewhere during the crossing of the ocean or the first year in the United States, she met William and Ruth Hayward who were also converts. They arrived in Utah in 1853. Emma's company arrived in Salt Lake 25 September 1855. The Haywards and Emma Dewey became great friends and they settled in Ogden, Weber County, Utah. Plural marriages were being practiced in the church at this time, and Emma Dewey became the third wife of the missionary who converted her. She was sealed 7 October 1856 to Elder Isaac Allred who was born in Bedford County, Tennessee on 28 June 1813. He married his first wife, Julia Ann Taylor, on 10 October 1832. A daughter, Emma, was born to Isaac in Ogden; they then moved to Ephraim where a son, Adelbert, was born. In 1859 Isaac moved his family to Mt. Pleasant, where he was engaged in sheep raising. On the 12th of May he was accidentally killed by a life-long friend, Tom Ivie. They had been sitting at the campfire when they began arguing over some sheep; in the heat of the argument Tom pulled an aspen pole from the fire and hit Isaac on the head. The blow killed him instantly. His friend and murderer was tried and condemned to death, but he escaped and went East. President Brigham Young prophesied that Tom Ivie would apostatize from the church and buzzards would pick his bones. This prediction was literally fulfilled as the remains of Mr. Ivie were subsequently found in a corn field devoured by buzzards. Thus, Emma Dewey Allred was left a widow with two small children. During this period of bewilderment, William and Ruth Hayward came to her aid and befriended her. Emma had known nothing but hardships and hard work from her early childhood, and being a widow with her small babies to provide for was just another chapter in her life to strengthen her character. William entered into polygamy and took Emma as his second wife on 6 June 1863. He made a home for her in Moroni, Utah. On 26 April 1864 a son, Thomas Henry, was born to them. Thus in the triangle of plural marriages Thomas had half brothers and sisters that had half brothers and sisters that were no relation to Thomas. Being a second wife obliged Emma to do what ever she could to earn a living for herself and three children. They went barefoot, poorly clothed and often hungry while their mother bent over the washboard or perspired over hot irons to earn a few cents from her neighbors. They grew up in the very poorest of surroundings. The children assisted their mother as they were able in the chores, and they indeed learned the value of money. William had been called to help settle the Sevier Valley (later called Richfield) about 1859. He later built a double house and moved Emma and her children to Richfield. They saw much poverty and because of Indian disturbances were forced to leave their home and move to Nephi. Here a daughter, Ruth, was born to Emma, but she died while still an infant of dysentery. William was called to help resettle Richfield in 1870; he took Ruth with him, but Emma remained in Nephi. Her daughter married Thomas West and moved to Chester in 1875; Emma followed her two boys. She was the first school teacher in Chester. Through all of Emma's hard work she always found time to give her time and talents to the church. The Chester Ward Records show that she was very active. She was a teacher in the first Sunday School and on 2 December 1883 was sustained as second assistant in the Sunday School. She held this position until 1892 when she was advanced to first assistant—a position few woman have ever held. She had been sustained as second Counselor in the Relief Society 13 January 1878 and when the Primary was organized on 22 June 1880 she was its first President. She was released from the Primary in 1893. She followed the pattern of the Master Teacher of teaching by doing. She would take her primary children out into the wheat fields and follow along behind the thrasher gleaning the grain they left. Her hands were often raw and bleeding. When they had gleaned all they could, she would have it thrashed and give the wheat to the bishop, thus teaching the children both the value of work and the blessing of giving. William Hayward died from internal injuries sustained from over lifting; this happened 27 September 1891 at the age of 74. He was buried at Richfield. Emma left Chester and moved to Mt. Pleasant to make her home with her daughter in 1893. While there she furnished the bread for the sacrament for 12 years. She would take the bread in a little egg basket lined with a white napkin and covered with a lid. She would carefully gather any pieces of bread left over and be very sure that not one piece was wasted; she explained to the grandchildren and neighbor children that it was an honor to eat these pieces of bread as they had been blessed. Her kindness to children and loved ones was most outstanding and she was affectionately known wherever she went as "Aunt Emma." Her grandchildren called her "Grandma Great." On Tuesday, 20 April 1909, at the age of 83 she gathered her family together and walked several blocks in the rain to have a four-generation picture taken. Soon after returning home she became ill and slipped peacefully away during the night. She was buried at Mt. Pleasant. Her obituary read, "Another of Mt. Pleasant's pioneers has passed to the Great Beyond in the person of Aunt Emma Hayward. She died early Wednesday morning, 21 April 1909." Grandmother was very modest and unassuming. She never had much to say about her life nor did she leave any stories that would help complete her history. One letter from her half sister Ann in England was found among her papers, so she did hear from her family. In asking some of her grandchildren what they could remember about her, one of them said, "I remember her little cape and bonnet trimmed with a feather and lace which she always wore to church." Others said about all they could remember was her kindness and hard work. All of them said she was one of the hardest-working persons they had ever known. One remembered her beautiful flower garden and the bouquets she always sent home with them, and another has a favorite spot in his flower garden where some of her Lily-of-the-Valley grow. I was just a year old when she died and cannot remember her, but I have been told by my mother many times how she used to play with me and laugh at my actions until the tears would roll down her face. She laughed at my hands when I was born because they were so big. She said, "When she puts them over her face they are so big they cover her whole face. What greater gift could a father and a grandmother give you than hardworking hands?"

⁸⁹⁴This is slightly problematic since James Targett was not a carpenter. Looking at the register, there was another marriage the same day in which both fathers were carpenters. It is plausible that the curate made an error of duplication, or simply that John Targett gave incorrect information. The 1861 census gives Bapton as John's place of birth. We can be fairly certain that the man who married Mary Ann Jackson in 1858 and who was recorded with her in 1861 are the same John Targett who was born at Bapton in 1833.

In 1891, John Targett (55, packer, Wiltshire) and Mary A. (56, Yorkshire) were living at 9 Murray Street with their children John A. (17, clerk, London City), and Frederick (15, grocer's assistant, Shoreditch).

John died in 1894¹⁰⁴⁶, aged 60.

Mary Ann Targett of 28 Ufton Road, Kingsland died on 2 June 1897. Administration was granted to Mary Isabella Bodger, wife of Theodore Henry Bodger.

(d) Mary

Mary Targett was born at Bapton around 1837.

She was baptised at Fisherton Delamere on 29 January 1837.

In 1841, Sarah Targett (43) was living in Bapton with her husband James (35, AgLab) and children Eliza (10), Ann (9), John (7) and Mary (4). Her husband was clearly several years younger than her. Also present were her widowed mother Elizabeth (78) and daughter Emma (15). The ordering of the entry seems to confirm that Eliza was James Pargett's daughter. She was recorded as Eliza Pargett above the couple's other children. In contrast, Emma was recorded as Emma Dewey, below Sarah's mother, Elizabeth.

Sarah Targett, wife of James Targett, labourer, died from consumption at Bapton on 3 May 1845¹⁰⁴⁷, aged 47. Elizabeth Dewey of Bapton was present at and registered the death.

James Targett, of age, widower, labourer, of Bapton, son of William Targett, labourer, married Jane Davis, of age, spinster, of Bapton, daughter of Richard Davis, labourer at Fisherton Delamere on 15 July 1848. Hannah Davis and Sarah Perkins were the witnesses.

In 1851, James Targett (40, AgLab, Pertwood) and wife Jane (31, Chilmark) were living in Bapton with his children Ann (19, Bapton), John (16, Bapton) and Mary (14, Bapton).

In 1861, James Targett (50, AgLab, Pertwood) and Jane (41, Chilmark) were living in Bapton with James's daughter Ann (28, farm servant, Bapton), and their children Henry (8, scholar, Wilton) and Mary A. (6, scholar, Sherrington).

The family of Job Ranger

Elizabeth Ranger was the mother of an illegitimate son, Job Ranger, who was baptised at Fisherton Delamere on 30 January 1791. The IGI suggests that Job was David Dewey's son, but there is no evidence to confirm this. He was my GGGG uncle.

Job Ranger, servant, of Bapton, married Elizabeth Shepherd, spinster of Durrington at Durrington on 25 July 1813. The witnesses were Susanna Spreadbury and Mary Purchase.

For 1834, and perhaps earlier, he was gamekeeper for John Davis at Bapton. Before that he was recorded as a labourer on the baptisms of his sons James and Charles, and as a servant for William in 1822, and the later children.

In 1841, Job Ranger (50, gamekeeper) and Elizabeth (54) were living in Bapton with George (30, AgLab), James (27, AgLab), Anne (25), Charles (22, AgLab), William (20, AgLab) and Henry (10). The family of Joseph Gale was nearby.

From the Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette, dated 10 February 1842: At a petty sessions held in this town on Thursday last, before Mr. Phipps, Mr. Biggs, Mr. Temple, and Mr. Rivenhill, Matthew Flemming, W. Swayne, Geo. Paine, and John Spearey, were summoned for violently assaulting the gamekeepers of J. Davis, esq. It appeared that Job Ranger (one of the keepers) and his son, and Lacock, another keeper, were at the George at Codford on the evening in question, where they met the several defendants; that they left the inn a little before 11 o'clock, but had not proceeded far before they were overtaken by the defendants, one of whom immediately knocked Ranger down, and others ill-used him ; upon getting up, he was again knocked down, and this was repeated several times. His son met with similar treatment. The defendants said that the keepers were drunk, and begun the affray. They were however convicted of the assault, and fined 20s. each. Three of them paid the fine; but, in default, Spearey was committed to Devizes prison for two months.

In 1851, Job Ranger (60, gamekeeper, Bapton) and Elizabeth (65, Durrington) were living in Bapton with their children George (38, AgLab, Bapton), Mary (25, single, dressmaker, Bapton), granddaughter Emma Ranger (4, Bapton), daughter Anne Akhurst (34, married, dressmaker, Bapton) and her daughter Eliza A. Akhurst (4, Bapton).

Elizabeth died in 1856¹⁰⁵⁰, aged 70. She was buried at Fisherton Delamere on 9 April 1856.

In 1861, Job Ranger (69, widower, farm bailiff, Fisherton Delamere) was living in Fisherton Delamere with his sons Charles (42, AgLab, Fisherton Delamere) and Henry (35, groom, Fisherton Delamere), Charles's wife Anne (40, Codford), and their children Job (16, under carter, Fisherton Delamere), John (14, under shepherd, Fisherton Delamere), Sarah (11, scholar, Fisherton Delamere), Eliza (7, scholar, Fisherton Delamere), Louisa (5, scholar, Fisherton Delamere), and his granddaughters Emma Ranger (14, scholar, Fisherton Delamere) and Fanny Ranger (8, scholar, Fisherton Delamere).

In 1871, Job Ranger (81, widower, annuitant, Bapton) was living in Wylve Road, Fisherton with his son Henry (40, AgLab, Bapton), granddaughter Fanny Ranger (18, Bapton), and grandson Henry Akhurst (14, scholar, Shrewton).

Job Ranger, late of Bapton, died at Bapton on 10 January 1879. He was buried on 15 January 1879, aged 92 (88).

Descendents of George Dewey

George Dewey was the father of David Dewey and my GGGGG grandfather. He was baptised at Tilshead, Wiltshire on 6 February 1734/5. George Dewey was probably the tenth of eleven children born to Robert and Sarah Dewey (née Blewden¹⁰⁹⁵). He moved to Codford from Tilshead at some time before 1758 and lived there the rest of his life.

George married Elizabeth Cockerel¹⁰⁹⁶ of Great Wishford, Wilts. at Codford St. Mary, Wilts. on 6 June 1758.

Elizabeth Dewey was buried at Codford St. Mary, on 12 April 1803¹⁰⁹⁷.

George was buried on 24 May 1805 at Codford St. Mary, aged 71.

George and Elizabeth had issue:

1. Anne

Anne Dewey was born at Codford in 1758.

She was baptised on 31¹⁰⁹⁸ December 1758 at Codford St Mary. Anne was the oldest child of George and Elizabeth Dewey.

There is no record of her having married. Perhaps she died young and her burial is not recorded.

2. George

George Dewey was born at Codford around 1760.

He was baptised on 9 November 1760 at Codford St Mary.

I have no evidence that George Dewey married or had children¹⁰⁹⁹.

I have found no record of George's burial¹¹⁰⁰ in Codford.

3. Mary

Mary Dewey was born at Codford around 1763. She was the third child of George and Elizabeth Dewey.

She was baptised on 5 December 1763 at Codford St Mary.

She probably died unmarried in late 1789, aged about 26.

Mary Dewey was buried on 16 December 1789 at Codford St Mary.

4. Elizabeth

Elizabeth Dewey was baptised on 9 December 1764 at Codford St Mary, Wilts.

It seems likely that Elizabeth married George Badder¹¹⁰¹ of Stockton, Wilts. at Codford St. Mary, Wilts.¹¹⁰² on 7 October 1792.

It appears George and Betty moved to Fisherton shortly after their marriage.

They probably had issue:

(a) James

James Badder was born at Fisherton Delamere in 1796.

He was baptised there on 15 May 1796.

¹⁰⁹⁵Maiden name from will (JD)

¹⁰⁹⁶George's wife Elizabeth is often recorded as Betty in the parish registers.

¹⁰⁹⁷Betty, wife of George Dewey, [aged] 73, Codford St Mary Parish Register

¹⁰⁹⁸23 December 1758 (JD) - I have checked the register. It's 31

¹⁰⁹⁹Jim Dewey mentions the baptism of his son, John Dewey (7 May 1797) Checking the register indicates this to be the son of Abraham and Betty Dewe. Their name seems to have actually been Cooper.. Another son, William is mentioned - Can he be identified with the William Dewy (sic) buried at Codford on 15 September 1814, aged 23

¹¹⁰⁰Jim Dewey gives 1837? as the year of George's death.

¹¹⁰¹George Badder, son of Gabriel and Sarah was baptised at Codford St Peter on 2 May 1763.

¹¹⁰²What is the evidence for this marriage? A George Badder witnessed David Dewey's marriage

(b) Moses

Moses Badder was born at Fisherton Delamere on 7 May 1801.

He was baptised, aged 3 days, on 10 May 1801.

A Moses Bader of Bapton was buried¹¹⁰³ at Fisherton Delamere in 30 Jan 1814.

(c) Daniel

Daniel, the son of George and Betty Badder was baptised at St Denys, Warminster on 19 May 1805.

(d) George

George Badder was born at Fisherton Delamere on 3 August 1807.

He was baptised, aged 6 days, at Fisherton Delamere on 9 August 1807.

George Badder, bachelor, married Sarah Lawrence, spinster at Fisherton on 7 May 1836. James Ranger and Elizabeth Lawrence were the witnesses.

They had issue:

i. James

James Badder was baptised at Fisherton Delamere on 26 March 1837.

James Badder, full age, bachelor, shepherd, of Hinton, son of George Badder, labourer, married Maria Brown, full, spinster, daughter of James Brown, labourer at Hinton Charterhouse, Somerset on 23 August 1862¹¹⁰⁴. Edward Witcomb witnessed the marriage.

In 1861, James Badder (24, shepherd, Bapton) was lodging in Hinton with William Pollard. Ann Badder (14, scholar, Bapton) was also present, and described as a visitor.

In 1871, James Badder (34, shepherd, Wiltshire) and Maria (44, Mells, Somerset) were living in English Coombe, Somerset.

In 1881, James Badder (44, shepherd, Bapton) and Maria (58, Mells) were living in North Wraxall, Chippenham, Wilts.

In 1901, James Badder (60, shepherd on farm, Delamere, Wilts.) and Maria (71, Mells) were living at Coldwell Cottage, Marshfield, Gloucs. They had a boarder, William Alcock (27), a gamekeeper from Cirencester.

In 1911, James Badder (74, widower, shepherd, NK) was recorded as an inmate of Chipping Sodbury Workhouse.

James died in 1911¹¹⁰⁵, aged 74.

ii. Elizabeth

Elizabeth Badder was born at Fisherton Delamere in 1839¹¹⁰⁶.

She was probably the mother of:

A. Francis Sidney

Francis Badder was probably the illegitimate son of Elizabeth Badder. He was born at Bapton in 1859¹¹⁰⁷.

He was baptised at Fisherton de la Mere on 12 September 1859, the son of Elizabeth Badder, single woman.

He was with his grandparents in 1861 and 1871.

He witnessed the marriage of his cousin Tom Badder in 1882.

He married Jane Burroughs in 1887¹¹⁰⁸.

They had issue:

(1) Francis Percy

Francis Badder was born in 1887¹¹⁰⁹.

Job Ranger died on 24/25 December 1892¹³⁸⁹, aged 48.

From the Bristol Mercury, dated Wednesday 28 December 1892: STOCKTON - Two inquests were held in this little village situated near Warminster, yesterday morning, before Mr Coroner Sylvester, on two persons who died under sad circumstances on Christmas Day. The second inquiry was on the body of Job Ranger, carter, of Maidenhead, who was on a visit to his father, and who was found dead on the side of road on Christmas morning. Deceased and others had a drinking bout on Christmas Eve. They were all the worse for drink, and after they started for home none of the party could remember what became of the deceased. They all appeared to have fallen down, but all except deceased seemed to have managed to get home. There were no marks of violence on deceased except a slight abrasion, evidently produced by falling. When found deceased was lying on his face, and the doctor said death was due to suffocation while intoxicated, accelerated by exposure to the weather. The jury returned a verdict in accordance with the medical testimony.

¹⁴³³DR: Daniel Dewey, D1879, Amesbury, 5a 111 (84)

He was baptised there on 19 January 1806.

In 1851, a John Dewey (35 (sic), groom, Codford) was working as groom in Iwerne Minster, Dorset.

In 1861, John Dewey (50, groom and gardener, Codford St. Mary) was living alone next to the Rectory in Hindon, Wilts.

John Dewey of Hindon, Wiltshire, servant, died on 12 February 1862¹⁴³⁴, aged 56.

According to Jim Dewey, John married twice¹⁴³⁵. I have found no record of either marriage¹⁴³⁶. His will¹⁴³⁷ suggests he had no surviving male children when he died.

Daniel and Mary probably moved to the parish of Codford St. Peter between 1793 and 1796. They were back in Codford St. Mary before the end of 1805.

Daniel died in 1831. He was buried on 17 March 1831 at Codford St Mary, aged 60.

Mary Dewey was buried at Codford St Mary on 9 February 1840, aged 73.

6. Sarah

Sarah Dewey was baptised on 27 August 1771 at Codford St Mary.

She died unmarried in 1789, aged about 18, and was buried on 18 December 1789 at Codford St Mary. She was buried just two days after her sister Mary. It is possible that both succumbed to the same infectious disease.

7. DAVID

See previous section.

8. John

John Dewey was the youngest child of George and Elizabeth Dewey. He was baptised at Codford St. Mary on 14 April 1776.

He married Mary Trowbridge on 1 September 1799 at Codford St. Peter.

They had issue¹⁴³⁸:

(a) Elizabeth

Elizabeth Dewey was born on 1 November 1799 and baptised at Codford St. Mary on 10 November 1799.

She died of measles, aged 7, in the spring of 1807 and was buried at Codford St. Peter on 5 April 1807.

(b) Ann

Ann Dewey was born on 23 June 1801 and baptised at Codford St. Peter on 6 July 1801.

Very little is known about her life. However, she was probably the mother of an illegitimate son, buried aged 1 day on 4 August 1826¹⁴³⁹.

In 1851, Ann Dewey (50, unmarried, servant, Codford St Mary) was recorded working for Mary Henwood in Walcot, Bath, Somerset.

(2) Mary Ranger, daughter of Job Ranger, in 1853 in East Knoyle - perhaps died in 1859.

¹⁴³⁶Neither candidate for John Dewey in the 1851 and 1861 Censuses is recorded as married or a widower.

¹⁴³⁷Will of John Dewey of Hindon (8 February 1862) : This is the last Will and Testament of me John Dewey of Hindon in the County of Wiltshire Servant made on 8th Feb 1862 I give and bequeath unto my brother Danile Dewey a legacy of Nineteen pounds and nineteen shillings. To my nephew William Hinton of Sutton Veny in the said County Forty pounds. To Ann Ranger the wife of Charles Ranger of Bapton in the said County the like Sum of Forty pounds. I give and bequeath unto my Executors hereinafter named a sum of Eighty pounds to be equally shared between the five children of the said Charles and Ann Ranger namely Job Ranger John Ranger Sarah Ranger Louisa Ranger and Eliza Ranger to be paid them on their severally attaining the age of twenty one years and I direct my said Executors to place the said sum in a Savings Bank at interest in the meantime. I also give unto the said Job Ranger my watch. I give unto the said Ann Ranger and to Mary Phillips of Hindon a sum of Twenty five shillings each to purchase mourning. I give and bequeath unto my Executors hereinafter mentioned the sum of Five pounds each for their trouble in carrying out the intentions of this will And all the rest residue and remainder of my estate and effects whatsoever I give and bequeath unto my nephew John Dewey ...

¹⁴³⁸Jim Dewey suggests there was son John, born on 1 November and baptised on 10 November 1799. These details match the baptism record for Elizabeth. There is no record for a John Dewey in the Codford St Mary Parish register.

He married Jane Kitley at Heytesbury on 14 October 1882.

They had issue:

A. Albert George

Albert Edwards was born in Barford St. Martin, Wilts. in 1883¹⁶⁸⁴.

B. Job William

Job Edwards was born in Heytesbury in 1885¹⁶⁸⁵.

In 1891, the census records him as William J. Edwards (5, scholar, Heytesbury).

C. Frederick James

Fred Edwards was born in Heytesbury in 1888¹⁶⁸⁶.

D. Charlotte Maria

Charlotte Edwards was born in Warminster around July 1890¹⁶⁸⁷.

E. Bessie Gladys

Bessie Edwards was born in Tytherly, Hants. around August 1900¹⁶⁸⁸.

In 1891, John Edwards (37, AgLab, Fisherton) was living at 23 Mill Lane, Warminster with his wife, Jane (30, Berwick St. James) and children, Albert G. (7, scholar, Barford St. Martin), William J. (5, scholar, Heytesbury), Frederick J. (3, Heytesbury), and Charlotte (10 month, Warminster) and a lodger, Richard Fear (40, Warminster).

In 1901, John Edwards (45, farm labourer, Fisherton) was living next door to his father, Job, in Fisherton Delamere with his wife, Jane (42, Berwick St. James) and children, Albert (18, farm labourer, Barford St. Martin), Job (16, farm labourer, Heytesbury), Fred (14, Heytesbury), Charlotte (10, Warminster) and Bessie (9 months, Tytherly).

In 1851, Job Edwards (25, AgLab, Fisherton Delamere) and Maria (27, Codford St. Peter) were living their daughters, Priscilla (2, Fisherton Delamere) and Betsey J. (11 months, Fisherton Delamere) in Fisherton.

In 1861, Job (39, serv. farmer, Fisherton) and Maria Edwards (40 [sic], Codford St. Peter) were still living in Fisherton Delamere, living at the end of the village with their children, Priscilla (12, scholar, Fisherton), Bessie [sic](10, scholar, Fisherton), and Wm. J. (6, scholar, Fisherton).

In 1871, Job Edwards (43, AgLab, Fisherton) and Maria (50, Codford St. Peter) were living with their son, William (16, AgLab, Fisherton), and granddaughter, Ann M. Edwards (3, Wilton) in Village Street, Fisherton Delamere.

Maria Edwards probably died in 1876¹⁶⁸⁹, aged 58.

In 1881, the widowed Job Edwards (57, AgLab, Fisherton) was living in Fisherton Delamere with his daughter, Priscilla A. Edwards (32, housekeeper, Fisherton) and son John (26, AgLab, Fisherton). Priscilla's future husband John Long was next door.

Job possibly married again in the Spring of 1881¹⁶⁹⁰.

By 1891, Job (70, AgLab, widower, Fisherton) was living alone in Fisherton.

In 1901, Job Edwards (82, Fisherton Delamere) was living 2 doors away from the school house in Fisherton with his widowed daughter Priscilla Long (52, domestic cook, Fisherton). Living next door were the family of Job's son, John.

Shortly after the Census, Job Edwards died, apparently aged 80¹⁶⁹¹.

John Dewey probably¹⁶⁹² died in 1824. He was buried at Codford St. Peter on 24 March 1824, aged 46¹⁶⁹³

Mary Dewey was buried at Codford St. Peter on 13 November 1834, aged 56. This is about the right age for her to have been John's widow.

Other Descendents of Robert Dewey and Sarah Blewden

George Dewey was probably the tenth child of Robert and Sarah Dewey. In this chapter, we trace some of the descendants of George's siblings.

The will of John Blewden: This is the last Will and Testament of me John Blewden of Maddington in the County of Wilts, Labourer, made the Twenty Eight Day of December in the Year of Our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty Seven as follows (that is to say) I will that all my Just Debts and Funeral Expenses be paid and Satisfied. I give and bequeath to my Kinsman Daniel Dewey my House that I lives(sic) in but I give my sister Sarah Dewey House room in the said House during the Term of her Natural Life. I also give her the Bed and Bedstead that I now lays(sic) on and all thereunto Belonging and the Clothes Press and the Long Table Board. I Give and Bequeath to Edward Blowden(sic) and Sarah Blowden(sic) children of my brother Richard Bowden(sic) the sum of five pounds apiece to be paid and Payable to them at their Respective Ages of Twenty one Years of Age and if either of them dies before that age then the Legacy of him or her so dying to go to the Survivor. I give and bequeath to Thomas Dewey, John Dewey, Robert Dewey, David Dewey, Solomon Dewey, Daniel Dewey, George Dewey, and Anne the Wife of Richard Cully, Mary the Wife of James Alexander, Sarah the wife of Robert Gamblen and Abigail the wife of George Cannons(sic), Sons and daughters of my sister Sarah Dewey the sum of five pounds to be paid to them in Twelve Months after my Decease. I give and bequeath to my Brother Richard Blewden and my Sister Sarah Dewey whom of likewise constitute make and ordain my Joint Executors of this my last Will and Testament all my Freehold and leasehold Messuages and Tenements, Moneys, Securities for Monies, Household Goods and all other things whatsoever equally between them share and share alike and further to whom they thinks(sic) prosper and my will if any of my Relatives herein above Mentioned do make any Dispute about what I have left them then she or he or they that makes any Dispute shall only have One Shilling and the share him her or them that makes any Dispute shall go equally between them that makes(sic) no dispute. Will: 28 December 1767, Maddington, Wiltshire

From notes found on ancestry.co.uk - all needs to be checked.

Robert Dewey was probably baptised at Great Cheverell on 5 February 1694¹⁶⁹⁷.

Robert's parents were probably Robert (bur. West Lavington, Nov 1724) and Abigail Nubury or Coles (bap. Great Cheverell, 14 April 1659, bur. West Lavington, Sep 1718).

Robert probably had a older sister, Abigail, who was baptised at Great Cheverell on 10 November 1687. An Abigail Dewey of Maddington married Robert Witt of Orcheston St. George at Maddington on 18 November 1728. William, son of Robert Dewe was baptised at West Lavington on 14 February 1691.

Robert snr. was perhaps the son of William Dewey (1632?? - Aug 1688, West Lavington) and Elizabeth Sainsbury. William and Elizabeth were married at West Lavington on 27 July 1668.

William Dewey may have been the son of Alexander Dewey and Joan Hannam. The line continues with Christopher Dewie to Robert Dewe of Idmiston and his wife Elizabeth in the late 16th century.

¹⁶⁹⁷BVR

Robert Dewey married Sarah Blewden before 1717¹⁶⁹⁸.

Robert Dewey probably died before 1767 since the will of John Blewden makes provision for his sister's housing for the rest of her life.

Sarah was still alive in 1767. I suspect she died at Maddington¹⁶⁹⁹ in January 1776 and was buried there on 21 January, aged about 81/82.

The family of Sarah Blewden

Sarah Blewden was my GGGGGG grandmother.

Sarah was baptised at Maddington on 13 October 1693, the daughter of Thomas Blewden.

Thomas Blewden was probably baptised at Shrewton on 2 March 1666/7, the son of John and Joan. An older brother John was baptised at Shrewton on 19 October 1662.

Thomas married Sarah ???? before 1693.

Sarah Blewden was buried at Maddington on 6 April 1722.

They had issue:

1. SARAH

Sarah was born in 1693. See Previous Section.

Sarah was still alive in 1767. I suspect she died at Maddington¹⁹³⁸ in January 1776 and was buried there on 21 January, aged about 81/82.

2. Mary

Mary Bluden, daughter of Thomas was baptised at Maddington on 26 May 1695.

3. Joan

Joan Bluden, daughter of Thomas and Sarah was baptised at Maddington on 10 June 1697.

4. John

John Blewdon, daughter of Thomas and Sarah was baptised at Maddington on 23 March 1698/9.

John Blewden, infant, was buried at Maddington on 10 November 1700.

5. Ruth

Ruth Blewdon, daughter of Thomas and Sarah was baptised at Maddington on 21 January 1700/1.

6. John

John Blewden, daughter of Thomas and Sarah was baptised at Maddington on 16 January 1704/5.

John Blewden was buried at Maddington on 10 April 1768. He left a will which can be seen on page 132.

7. Richard

John Blewden's will explicitly refers to his brother Richard and his two children Edward and Sarah. All were alive in 1768. I can find record of this Richard.

¹⁹³⁸She was living in John Blewden's former house in Maddington which passed to Daniel Dewey on his death
